Col. Bill Murray
7400 Crestway
Apt. 1423
San Antonio, TX 78239

December 18, 2003

Dear Bill:

Your thoughtful inclusion of my name on your holiday greetings and the personal note at the bottom was sincerely appreciated.

Yes, Champa rode us back to Cincinnati together and we missed the banquet in Louisville. However, we gained a friendship. I read your prolific stream of numismatic thinking and wonder how you can write on so many different numismatic subjects. I wish our paths crossed more often.

I am opening a numismatic museum in St. Louis at Washington University and any thoughts you have on subject matter or topics for exhibition would be welcome. Whatever will attract the public is what I want to do.

Please enjoy the holidays and thrive.

Your friend,

Eric P. Newman

Bertram@wustl.edu

935-6484